

Program Outcomes Measures

The California Institute of Medical Science Phlebotomy Certificate Program is a certificate that is approved by the National Accrediting Agency for Clinical Laboratory Science (NAACLS).

The program outcomes of this certificate as defined by NAACLS is the exam pass rates, program completion rates, attrition, and job placement for students completing the Phlebotomy Certificate Program.

The program outcome measures completion of the Phlebotomy Program for the past three years (2020 - 2022) are as follows:

Graduation Rate: 100%

Attrition Rate: N/A

Exam Pass Rate: 95%

Job Placement Rate: 85%

Additional information regarding NAACLS benchmarks, standards, and outcome measures can be found at:

National Accrediting Agency for Clinical Laboratory Sciences

5600 N. River Rd, Suite 720

Rosemont, IL 60018

Phone: (773) 714-8880

www.naacls.org